

Press-Kit (Curriculum Short-Version)

DIETMAR GARN – Classical Guitar

Dietmar Garn belongs to the new generation of international recognized guitarists. He studied classical guitar at the Musikhochschule Cologne/Aachen with Prof. Tadashi Sasaki and at the Musikakademie Kassel with Michael Troester. His repertoire reaches from the renaissance to modern music.

Dietmar Garn was a prize-winner in many international guitar-competitions.

Awards:

1st Prize „Tokyo International Guitar-Competition 2000“

1st Prize and absolut winner „International Music-Competition Anemos Roma 2002“

2nd Prize „Hong Kong International Guitar Competition 2002“

2nd Prize „Australian Guitar Competition 2002“ Newcastle

1st Prize and absolute winner

„International Music-Competition Rovere d`Oro Imperia 2004“ Italy

1st Prize „European Guitar Competition Gorizia 2004“ Italy

Finalist in the guitar competitions Viareggio/Italy, Printemps de la Guitare/Belgium, Velez-Malaga/Spain and semifinalist GFA Columbus/Georgia USA.

Dietmar Garn has an endorsement-contract with the Yamaha Corp. and is advisor in the classical guitar-department.

He recorded for television and broadcasting in and out of germany and participated at the CD-project „Spectrum Musicum“ which was broadcasted at german radio.

The „Japan Federation of Guitarist“ produced a Live-Video which was recorded in Tokyo in 2001.

He played concerts in Europe, Japan, South-Corea and Australia.

The italian guitar magazine „Chitarra Classica“ published an interview under the title „The future of the guitar with Dietmar Garn“

„Experience the magic of classical guitar with Dietmar Garn“